

Dear frozen FH3

I worked with many goats in Colombia, trying to collect good weather tokens for the next weeks in Germany. Clearly, it didn't work....we might see a ray of sunlight on Sunday #nopromises.

If you are going on my trail, wear trekking shoes, or something with good grip! It's messy and slippery out there; and you might consider bringing a change of shoes. Bring your phone, you might get lost! You are still in Frankfurt so you won't die.

FH3 HASH #1837 – A muddy Quiz-Run

This is an attempt at laying a "Quiz-run" trail. It's my first so you might need to use your brain and eyes simultaneously for once.

A couple of things to consider: I used the names of the streets a lot, translations are always funny; Even if you're German use your sense of humour; look around 360°; read the next clue in advance! There are main orientation points for the trail, if you find yourself beyond these points you're fucking lost.

North: Berger Warte

South: The protected natural area of Seckbacher Ried (In der Sauren Wiese)

East: The MainÄpplerHaus GmbH on the Kirchgasse (not the restaurant)

West: Friedberger Landstraße (!) if you're on the Autobahn, turn back!

Good luck
